International scientific conference

The present and the future of the legal order and human rights.
*From social, ethical and legal challenges to opportunities for development and cooperation

Conference programme

Chisinau, 17.06 -18.06.2022

PARTNERS

The current context of the processes that societies and states are going through is circumscribed to multiple challenges, which generate spectacular developments in certain areas, difficulties and confusion in others, as well as multiple interrogations about future developments. The international conference „The Present and the Future of the Legal Order and Human Rights. From social, ethical and legal challenges to opportunities for development and cooperation” proposes an academic platform for scientific debates in which representatives of the scientific and educational environment, state institutions, the diplomatic corps and non-governmental organizations, doctoral students, business environment, the wider public interested in the announced issue are invited to participate. There are multiple dimensions that require a multilateral and extensive approach, in carrying out the research project Modernization of governance mechanisms focused on the protection of human rights, which led to the organization of the conference.

The conference will discuss current issues for the scientific, socio-cultural, ethical, legal and political space.

The event is honoured by representatives of universities and research centres abroad, who are co-organizers of the international scientific-practical conference.
